

President's Message

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

1. A volunteer is needed to mow the lawn at OAS once per week, June through September. If you know a young person in need of volunteer hours, this is a great opportunity! Contact the office at info@oakvilleartsociety.com
2. OAS is planning a September Garage Sale. We need a volunteer to co-ordinate it.

Be sure to check out the OAS Student Show in Studio 2, on until June 9th. You are invited to attend the reception for artists, friends and family on June 9th from 2 to 4 p.m.

Carolyn

Congratulations to Ulla Lenzen Butt !

"Receiving an award for doing what you love is like getting extra icing on a piece of your favorite cake but receiving two awards is not only getting extra icing but with two very large cherries on top!" says Ulla Lenzen Butt. She is very pleased and proud to be the recipient of The Juror's Choice Award for her interpretation of the theme, "The Journey" with her water colour painting "Sisterhood No. 1", at the Art Gallery of Burlington's All Guilds Show (April 21 to May 21, 2018).

The second award is an Honourable Mention for her water colour painting, "Hypnotic Beauty", an interpretation of this year's "Signs of New Life" theme for the 122nd Annual Juried Exhibition of the Women's Art Association of Hamilton's at the Art Gallery of Hamilton, (April 29 to Sept.3, 2018). A photo of her painting is attached.
