

Supplies for Expressive Portrait and Figure in Watercolour with Instructor Atanur Dogan

(Note: it is not necessary to go out and buy more supplies. Your usual palette, brushes and paint will work for this workshop.)

Watercolour Paints:

Recommend artist quality paints, which provide richer pigments and better transparency like Holbein, Winsor & Newton, Talens Van Gogh. etc.

Watercolour Paper:

140 lb cold pressed watercolour paper
Atanur uses Hannemuller paper from Germany

Art Surface / Support:

Paper Support: Plexiglass, plywood, etc.
(for taping watercolour paper down)

Tools:

Plastic palette (one with 16 wells is good)
Brushes: At least one small, medium and large size round brush.
Paper towels or rags
Sketchbook or drawing paper

Reference materials:

Bring a photograph (one you would like to paint).
Bring samples of your drawings or paintings for critique.

Misc.

Atanur will bring his own brand of brushes
Affordable and good quality.
