

Painting Foundations Materials List

A Note From the instructor/artist Heather:

Hi there, I wanted to keep the supply list basic- but you will want a few quality items to get you started. Here is a list of them- you do not need to get these brands you can purchase whatever is accessible for you. This is a “beginner plus” class- you should have painting experience ~H

Most items can be found at Dollar stores or Michaels;

- Surface to paint on: canvas/ canvas board/ or wood or masonite board- one fresh one per week. Sizes- 8x10, 9x 12 are good sizes for beginners.

Acrylic Paint: You will need a Basic collection of primary colours;

-“DecorArt” from Dollarama: Colours; Bright Red, Bright Yellow, Burnt Umber (brown) White, Black-

- Michaels- 4 oz size Grass Green & Bright Blue (Craftsmart brand) OR buy a multipack
- any other colours you would like (we will learn to mix colours too)

Or Liquitex Basics Paint:

- Brushes- you will need a variety of small to large- a multipack is good. LINK
- Palette; parchment paper (dollar store) or a plate, or clear box lid or any smooth surface you can reuse - larger than you think you need!
- Water container: Jar or lg (yogurt tub/plastic cup etc)
- Paper towels or napkins for wiping brushes
- Plastic or paper reusable Table cover
- pencil & eraser & ruler
- sketchbook for notes, practice drawing etc
- (optional) a table top easel- the OAS has easels
- (optional) Gesso- hold off on purchase as I will go over it in first class.

I look forward to getting creative with you!
