

Paper to Canvas Materials List

A Note From the instructor/artist Heather: Hi there, I wanted to keep the supply list basic- but you will want a few quality items to get you started. Here is a list of them- you do not need to get these brands you can purchase whatever is accessible for you. This is a “beginner plus” class- you should have painting experience ~H

Most items can be found at Art Supply stores (ie: Deserres, Michaels

- Variety of surface to paint on: canvas/ canvas boards/ or wood or masonite board- one fresh one per week. Sizes- 8x10, 9x12 etc. Bring in one or two to start. If you want to paint larger go for it!

Multi Media Paper Book: Somewhere to practise drawing/painting. I have a multi media paper book with spiral binding- look for paper can handle drawing & practise painting 9 x12 is a good size

Acrylic Paint: You will need a basic collection of primary colours;

-Colours; Bright Primary Red, Bright Primary Yellow, Ultramarine Blue, Burnt Umber (brown) White, Black

- any other colours you would like but you do not need a lot as we will review paint & you will learn to mix colours

Brushes- you will need a variety of small to large- a multipack is good. LINK

Large Palette; palette paper, parchment paper (dollar store) or a plastic tray or large plastic plate, or clear box lid or any smooth surface you can reuse - larger than you think you need!

- Water container: Jar or lg (yogurt tub/plastic cup etc)

- Paper towels or napkins for wiping brushes

- Plastic or paper reusable table cover (dollar store)

- pencil & eraser & ruler

- (optional) a table top easel- the OAS has easels

- Reference photos: start a folder collecting images (digital or printed) of pictures you like, artists or things that inspire you!

I look forward to getting creative with you!
